The Membership and Recruitment Committee of the Mid-Atlantic Chapter (MAC) of the Medical Library Association invites library and information science students, paraprofessionals, and new librarians to apply for a conference scholarship to attend the 2007 MAC Annual Meeting.

The meeting will be held from October 9-12, 2007 in Baltimore, MD at the Baltimore Marriott Inner Harbor at Camden Yards. One scholarship will be awarded.

Requirements

Perspective applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Must be a first-time attendee at a MAC/MLA Annual meeting.
- A student currently enrolled either full or part-time in an ALA-accredited Masters program, a paraprofessional who works in a health science library, or a new librarian with 3 or less years of experience.
- Must live or work in the MAC/MLA region: District of Columbia, Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia, and West Virginia
- Willing to consider or have expressed an interest in pursuing a career in health sciences librarianship
- Agree to submit a one-page report detailing their experience and impression of the program to appear in MAC Messages newsletter.
- Paraprofessionals must hold an undergraduate degree
- Must be able to attend entire conference from October 9-12, 2007.

The selected recipient will receive complimentary conference registration, which includes most meals, lodging at the conference hotel, and a one-year MAC/MLA membership.

Submission Guidelines:

To be considered for this award:

- Essay, NO MORE THAN 500 WORDS, explaining your interest in participating in the 2007 Conference Scholars program, your interest in health sciences librarianship, and how attending the MAC/MLA meeting will contribute to your professional development.
- One letter of recommendation must be submitted with your application.
- A resume and cover letter.

Submit application materials to MAC Conference Scholars Program at macscholars@yahoo.com by June 15, 2007.

Notification about the award will be sent by June 30, 2007.
