

Hospital Librarian's Symposium Dinner
MAC/MLA Meeting
Morgantown, WV
Tuesday, October 21, 2008
6:30 – 8:30 pm

Please join with your colleagues for a delicious dinner and informative presentations. Dinner is a buffet that includes soup, salad, pastas, a variety of vegetables, chicken and beef. Presenters and topics include:

Dan Wilson, Coordinator, NN/LM Emergency Preparedness & Response Plan; Associate Director for Collection Management & Access Services, University of Virginia Claude Moore Health Sciences Library
Presentation Title: The NN/LM Emergency Preparedness & Response Plan: What it Means to Hospital Librarians in our Region.

Christine Caufield-Noll, Senior Informationist, Harrison Medical Library, Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center
Presentation Title: Integrating a Librarian into a Multidisciplinary Rounding Team

Lois H. Culler, Director, Health Sciences Library, Inova Fairfax Hospital Health System, Falls Church, VA
Presentation Title: Demonstrating Value: Collecting and Reporting Evidence Based Statistics in the Hospital Library

Diana McDuffee, Network Director, NC AHEC Information & Library System, Health Sciences Library, University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, NC
Presentation Title: The North Carolina AHEC Digital Library -- A Digital Library for North Carolina Hospitals, University Preceptors and Rural, Underserved Health Care Providers

When completing the ACTEVA registration form, you must register for the event and pay an additional $35 to purchase a ticket.