

What is MAC?

The Mid-Atlantic Chapter of the Medical Library Association (MAC) is an organization of health sciences librarians and other information professionals serving the District of Columbia, Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia, Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia. The purpose of MAC is to promote excellence in health sciences librarianship in the Mid-Atlantic region. The Chapter also serves as a vital link to the national activities of the Medical Library Association.

www.macmla.org

Become a MAC Member Today!

Membership Levels:

$25 Regular Membership
$10 Student Membership (ALA-accredited program)

To join or for more information, visit:
<http://macmla.org/membership.html>

Professional growth by serving on the following committees:

- Annual Meeting
- Communications
- Honors & Awards
- Membership & Recruitment
- Nominating
- Professional Development
- Research & Assessment
- Strategic Planning Committee

www.macmla.org/committees/committees.html

What can MAC do for you?

MAC Scholars

The MAC Conference Scholars program is open to any MLS or MIS student (when student specific awards are not available), new librarian, or other member in the Mid-Atlantic Chapter region who demonstrates interest in health sciences librarianship or medical informatics as a career.

Benefits of MAC

Members enjoy many benefits such as:

- Professional Growth
- Recognition via Chapter Awards
- Electronic Mailing List
- MAC Messages Blog
- Networking

Annual Conferences

MAC members receive a discount on registration for annual MAC conferences. These conferences offer:

- CE opportunities at reduced rates
- Networking with colleagues in your region
- Opportunities to present
- Vendors & Exhibits

www.macmla.org/events.html

This MAC Conference Scholars program provides:

- Travel, lodging, and registration for the MAC Annual Meeting in October
- Complimentary MAC membership for 1-year
- Participation as a member of a Chapter committee and involvement in Chapter projects